These posts together confirm God. This is all you need to accept God’s existence. I kept this as simple as possible to the best of my ability to get the message across, what I have provided is enough material. The public will call what I have explained a “theory”. Do NOT post this material on the internet. It will make a person VERY EMOTIONAL POTENTIONALLY MAKING THE PERSON ANGRY, and it will cause the person to laugh all day long. The emotional state and laughter will NOT go away until the person takes the material down. If you put the material up, all the emotional state goes away after a few days. Please listen to the warning, I will not keep asking you not to. You will have no doubt in your mind that religion is correct. If you notice, I barely make mention of Biblical or Quranic verses in these posts which is key. Do not abandon prayer, that is your only priority. This is a thank you for believing me. I also warn you that there is no going back when you read this.

Here is a list of countries that America has on its hit list delivered to us from George Bush (the first ever claimed President prophet) back in 2002. It was referred to as "the Axis of Evil" but I refer to it as the "Axis of Closed Markets" since they do not contain an internationally run central bank. Any nationalist country will be targeted by them. I ponder what evil really is to George here when both sides want "peace". This "Axis of Evil" takes place in many of the Biblical lands which I strongly believe they are aiming to destroy. These same countries are part of Donald Trump's Muslim Ban Executive Order 137693 (highlighted in red).

Yemen happens to be on it which was listed in 2006 by one of America's allies Eritrea. This particularly hits home for me after reading recent reports about how Saudi led airstrikes are conducted on innocent civilians along with a blockade to prevent food from coming in causing Yemeni children to die of starvation. Should America be funding the Saudis after their alleged role in 9/11? Now we see America taking its part in massacring innocents in Yemen. If America truly is a Christian nation, where does it end? Most are aware that Prophet Muhammad engaged in wars, they respond with saying that Jesus preached an "anti-war stance" (Christianity’s sacred text indicates otherwise). If that is the stance someone takes, should President Trump be allowed to kill in Christ's name?

The zionists believe this is their land and that they are its descendants (both of which are false, the Quran supersedes the Bible and the zionists are Khazars); they have started five wars to gain this land. Once they achieve this land, they will receive their Messiah as promised in their Talmud. If you are Christian or Islamic the Messiah has already come, we are warned that this will bring about the Anti-Christ. I would also like to add that the days where jinn or our Lord would give humans supernatural abilities such as staffs turning into snakes are far over since Prophet Muhammad left us. Granted these miracles will return but this is only during the Final Day, the jinn and God have ended giving us supernatural abilities. The jinn still contact us humans and Prophets do talk to people in dreams, but they do not grant us power and have not throughout history.

What confuses many zionists is that most of not all the Tanakh has already happened such as Jerusalem being attacked, they believe the Palestinians cannot have the land and when they capture it, get attacked, that is viewed as prophecy in their eyes for stealing land. The zionists are taught that they will be attacked so they must win these wars, but nothing indicates it. We are not allowed to know about their efforts to receive the Nile to the Euphrates under the claim they will be destroyed. They claim “peace”. However, they are stealing the land. If the Palestinians, Lebanese, Syrians, Iraqi’s, and Egyptians surrender, the zionists will try to control or kick out the people of the lands since the people will not live under the zionists. We’ve already seen the zionists try to kick out the Palestinians from the West Bank, try to capture the Golan Heights, capture the Sinai, and try to take Southern Lebanon. The zionists believe in a world to come where the world their own utopia where their false messiah will reign supreme whereas we Muslims don't we accept that the world will end someday in a final fight. We Muslims do not agree with this, in Quran verse 2:62 it is confirmed by a Prophet that there will be a Final Day.

The freemasons motto is "in god we trust" which is the Devil. They violate all our Lord's laws in war and laws towards treating others. They believe the Devil was the hero in the Gardens of Eden for putting men into the light which is the All-Seeing Eye. They believe our Lord tried to trap mankind in darkness. They get this belief from the Old Testament which contains much of mythology to explain how man got the knowledge of good and evil, the Quran doesn't speak of this. There is no proof our Lord hid the knowledge of good and evil from Adam, the Quran states that the tree was "harm and transgression". Satan cannot offer us anything whether if true or false that the tree in the Gardens of Eden was of knowledge. We will get all the knowledge in Paradise as it is stated none will enter with a weight of arrogance.

All the freemason's wars are religious. They believe the world should be under a one world government where all the world’s finances are controlled by them, that's why they invade the Middle East, this is a cult. Some of them do believe this is what our Lord wants with a “third” temple, but they are wrong since there will be a final day nothing would indicate it based on the "Second" temple's destruction. If the Temple isn't run by a Prophet, then Allah doesn't want the Temple. There was no "First Temple", there was Sulaiman’s Temple. They have to achieve their goals first considering they run the countries but keep promoting faith, they won't be able to. It is a race they will fail, there will be more and more religious people for them to try to control but they can't control the future or our thoughts. Whatever is invented on this earth they believe our Lord invented it for them to use such as lying. Without the kabbalah and the Talmud, there is no freemasonry. The freemasons want to build their “third temple” to unite the world with the help of their zionists friends along with the catholics and the knights templar. However, the Al-Aqsa Mosque stands in the way of the supposed “third temple.” They want to steal all the ancient artifacts and destroy the rest which is why they are bombing the Biblical Lands such as Sana'a in Yemen and have stolen the Black Stone in Mecca. Some freemasons believe in a false Arabian god that the Israelites confused who's both the 'son of god' and a god himself that can take human form. He supposedly can bring the death back to life known as "Jesus", for them there is no Messiah or Prophets this is separate from the Old and New Testaments. Paul the false apostle had seen this 'god' in a dream and did what he could to forge a Gospel to override the true Gospel. There are also freemasonic references in the false gospel Mark 12:10 and John 1:5-7.

The zionists believe in a false Palestinian god known in scripture as “remphan" as shown in Amos 5:26. I have no clue how many false gods they believe in. Their false god leader stems in Palestine, that is their false god’s leader “land.” Their false god they believe in needs Second Jerusalem in Palestine and from the Nile to the Euphrates which the zionists claim as their own from the Bible. That’s the land they want. The Quran means nothing to them because they know the Quran speaks of our Lord who is the Abrahamic Lord Allah. Their false god’s “scripture” ended in the Talmud where it spoke of the “third” temple that they want along with their false messiah to lead it.

In America, the Bible is no more superior to the Quran, the veshnus, the book of mormon, they are all considered equal. That means the Bible is not a holy book in America, it is just any other book. America will always be freemasonic; the freemasons will never quit no matter what their ambition for their “third” temple. I would like to comment on how the freemasons want America set up so at least two groups of people go back by way of protesting over for instance the 2021 Capital Hill Riots, where on the news it is dragged on forever and their American citizens feel that they are being discriminated against in some way because they did not get the president they wanted or because they hate the other side for their beliefs. Whatever the freemason’s ideas they make their citizens live under, all the freemason’s ideas are the worst known to mankind and cause their own citizens suffering!

The kabbalistic belief is to "bring new life", the way they pray is to use the “wailing wall” (which is Fort Antonia); this is done to bring a new tree of life where we live forever. Kabbalah believes in a false god named ein sof. They believe that people who are not zionists are from the “devil”. In the zionists flag, it is two blue lines which represent rivers of the Nile and the Euphrates rivers. In between the two blue lines in their flag is the star of “remphan” found in Amos 5:26 which the zionist try to deceive the public claiming it is “the star of david.”. This is not Judaism; the true Jewish faith is waiting for the Messiah, not to bring about the Messiah (lookup True Torah Jews). This also includes people who worship one God that happens to be false; they hide in Monotheism while they do not deny our Lord. The freemasons know America is going to collapse, they think their master plan will happen right before it collapses. Along with the catholics, these three groups are united for a one world government and one world religion. Not all the zionists want a one world government; they want the Nile to the Euphrates to bring about their false messiah. Sadly, because these people have their false faith, they think they will win and will bring about end times because they are not taught of a Final Day. The current year in a Hebrew calendar is 5786. This may leave us with 214 years left on the earth for their Anti-Christ to come.

It is believed that Prophet Abraham and his descendants were promised by our Lord the Nile to the Euphrates; we know this to be false because Prophet Abraham lived in West Arabia. He most likely never set foot outside of Arabia during his journey. The Bible is forged; it contains errors and contradictions in it. The ancient Israelite Prophet David ruled was in West Arabia/Yemen as shown in the photo. The people were known as the Israelites from the land of Asir, this is close to Asiraelites. Jews of Arabic origin are called Mizrahi from Mizraim. During Prophet Muhammad's time, the land of Egypt was called Copt, Prophet Muhammad himself wrote a letter to Egypt calling the land Copt. As far as the slave captivity of the Muslims goes, the land was called Mizraim or in the Quran it is called Misr. Unfortunately, someone wrote in Egypt in the Bible. Why weren't the pyramids mentioned in the Bible? Slavery never existed in Egypt but was quite common throughout history in Arabia. If Egypt owned slaves and was hit by the Ten Plagues; wouldn't the Egyptians have documented these events given their drawings on the pyramids?!

The zionists claim to be the original Semites; this is not true; Arabs are the Jews. The zionists are converts from the land of Khazaria. The Khazarian King Bulan converted his people to Judaism with their best interest to give them an identity and to make trade very easy between Christian Kingdoms and Islamic Caliphates. King Bulan was impressed with Judaism, and he had good ambitions; he had no clue that most of its followers would use the religion many years later to corrupt the earth. Today, the Jews claim to be the Lord's Chosen, the reality is that we are all God's Chosen, anyone can be a Muslim, Allah does not distinguish heritage. They are agnostic in the sense they deny angels, and they attack Muslim land. If westerners are God's Chosen, why is it that we don't have churches everywhere, mandatory bible study, and Jesus’ memorials? I would think that many first world countries would speak highly of Islam granted we Muslims are going through a few hiccups. Seems like they only talk about the negative, if I were a commentator, I would feel obligated to insert how religious Muslims are, not that it matters, in America you have freedom to do anything there is no blasphemy ban for example.

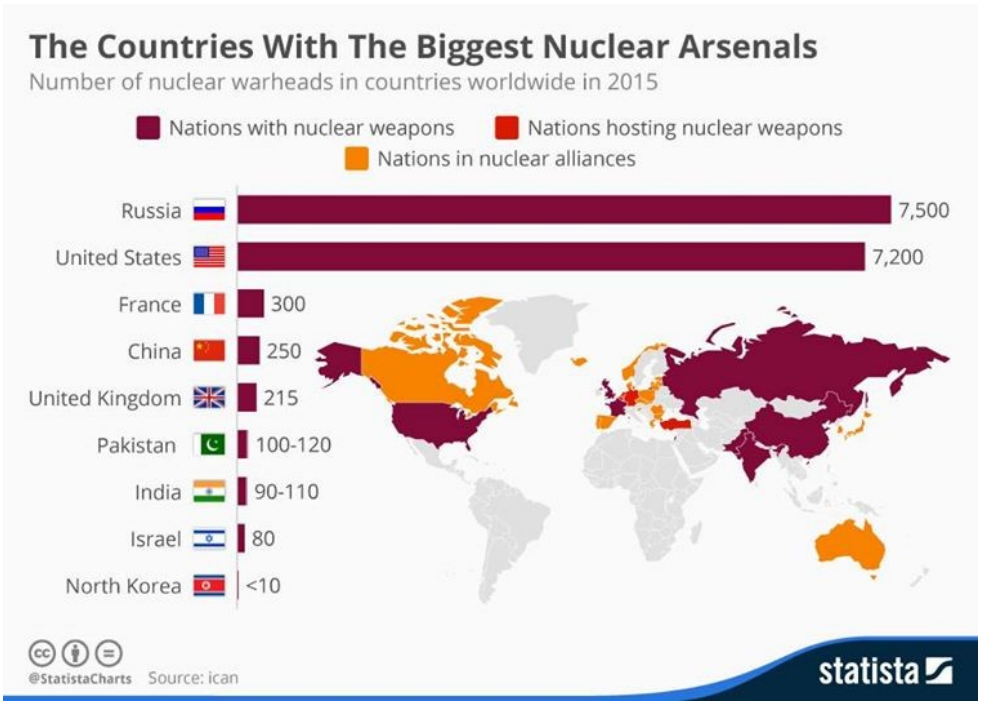
In the photo, you will see that these people are converts to talmudism which shows their heritage. Currently, the Masonic US government gives the zionists 15 billion dollars a year. It is true that in the Muslim faith there is a jizyah, some Muslims support the 2.5% tax, however the tax goes back to the public it doesn’t go to a foreign country. The next two photos are of the president and the pope attempting to pray towards Fort Antonia. If these people are correct in faith, then anyone they do not get along with will be one of their 2,700 personal slaves. Whoever they like is free to join their Ponzi Scheme and they believe the person joining it will get their own 2,700 personal slaves. All they care about is power, they don’t care about their political group, religious denomination, their heritage etc. They don’t care about how the world is run, though their media will keep trying to get your support any way possible.



Between America and Russia alone, there are enough nukes to destroy the world. This looks awful for both Americans and Russians alike. I also cannot understand is how politicians fund groups like black lives matter; do the politicians in America and Russia just ignore that their government could destroy the earth, or did they just overlook their own safety here? This is why I reject democracy in favor a republic like that of Iran's to have laws that would prevent acquiring nukes ever. If Vladimir Putin is Christian, is this ethical on his part? They only do such an insane practice because of their freemasonic religious beliefs. Perhaps the Bible didn't work for these leaders where they only want to stress out their own citizens. Islam seeks to end all nuclear programs, elect a Muslim for president.

This is a map of daesh and their target countries. This is a British created wahhabi ideology. The wahhab's will attack your military and in the case of the salafi, they will attack your civilians as we've seen with boko haram. They will go to Hell since it is illegal to target civilians in Islam, I will repeat Islam condemns all acts of terror. Infact, wahhabism was founded to kill Sunni's in masses it had nothing to do with persecuting other faiths; it is being taught in Mosques everywhere with its headquarters in Saudi Arabia. All mosques need to be audited because of these people. These are your "radical islamic terrorists" you hear about frequently on the news. There is no such thing as "radical islam", it is just a group of religiously confused people, do not believe fox news, that is a separate discussion. These people are paid for false preachers who celebrate 9/11 or claim Islam seeks to dominate today’s first world countries, they are very educated contrary to what our belief about them is. They claim to be Muslim, but they are not, they are zionists deceiving their citizens. There will be no "islamic state", the world will end. The Saudis, Turks, Americans, and British are funding the youth to be taught falsehood to kill innocent Jews, Christians, and Muslims. What happens when countries full of pacifists and people too cheap to pay for war prevent invasions? Well, painting Islam as evil happens in part to get people to leave. They are not Islamic. If their alliance doesn't invade, this is how they further wreck our countries and then blame Arabs or Islam for the Arab Spring. I have also provided a photo of John McCain with daesh leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, I believe that daesh was invented to destroy Iran as John put it on April 18th, 2007 " bomb Iran? bomb bomb bomb bomb".

British author challenges dubia cardinals, calls abuse of Pope 'satanic'

Stephen Walford, a British Catholic author, has challenged the four cardinals who submitted doubts about 'Amoris Laetitita' to Pope Francis to change course, arguing...

I agree with this, the catholics believe in a one world government. One thing people seem to overlook is that catholicism is not Christianity, it is its own false religion. The catholics get their practice from the Babylonian Talmud where they believe they can molest children as referenced in their scripture- "with the designated bond maid one is guilty only in the case of natural connection, but not in the case of perverse connection" Talmud Kerithoth 11a. Since the Islamic faith is correct, these catholic cardinals will be burning at the lowest depths of Hell for hypocrisy.

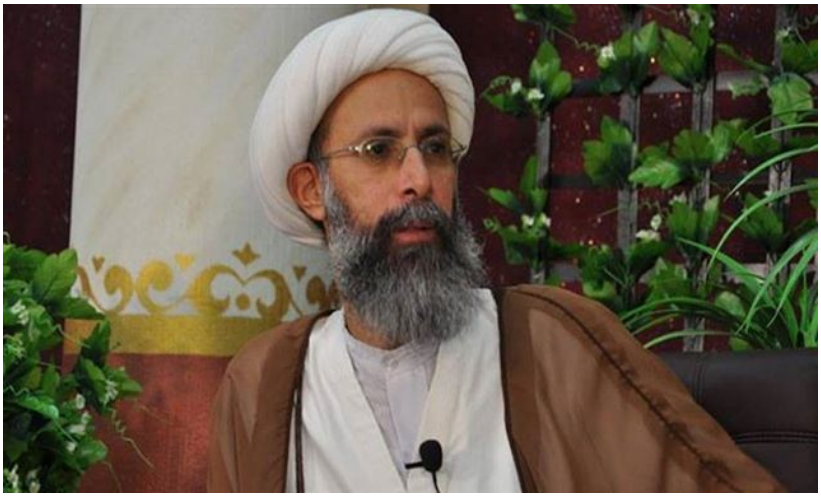
The pope will deceive people into worshiping the antichrist when he comes. The pope can bare false testimony, allow abortion, and can steal land. Shame the internet has to exist showing which religious denominations are lying about or are hiding their beliefs and traditions.



Here is the list of countries in the Gulf Cooperation Council. To say their record is bad is an understatement between the wars they have engaged in, to the Saudi's producing false hadith's (which is a guaranteed sentence to Hell). The Saudi government will do anything to paint Islam in a way to make North Americans and Europeans despise our faith banning women from driving, teaching in their schools that the Crusades are going on to this day, restricting free speech, and claiming the Bible is “witchcraft” where they will not sell you a Bible to try to lie to their citizens to claim the Bible has no relevance over the Quran even they don’t believe such an absurd claim. Also, the Saud’s executes political prisoners such as the hero in the second photo Sheikh Nimr Al Nimr. The truth is that the wahhab citizens in Saudi Arabia believe Shia's violate free speech by criticizing a government; whether you support Shia's or not this is not Islam, only the prophets are above criticism not governments. Anyone who leads a protest will be executed by them. The wahhabs will continue to execute political prisoners and are willing to attack the Kaaba because the Kaaba has no value to them since their "third temple" has to be located in Palestine. This is also catastrophic because an End Time Prophecy is that all evil people will be expelled from Medina, that is a lot of people who believe Churches, Synagogues, and Shiite Mosques cannot be opened in Saudi Arabia. What I'm trying to say is if evil means the false interpretation of Islam the Saud's own a monopoly where no one questions why Churches cannot be put in or why Shia's and some Sunni's get executed for freedom of speech, this is why you have to allow for criticism of all world religions and governments. They will also shun their families as part of end times because they won't know better that the scholars are wrong on Islam despite being shown by their parents who is wrong. The reason behind this post was also to highlight these specific countries have monarchies. For those who are unfamiliar with Islam, monarchies are never allowed which means they are all enemies of Islam. As I've already stated before, these people are "Donmeh Jews" ("Jews" who retained their beliefs while accepting Islamic teachings). They are not Islamic; they believe in an Age to Come and not a Final Day in Islam. I happen to not think their beliefs are correct because they mix in lying. There is no room for negotiation among us Muslims and them.

No, this allows for people being indoctrinated in cults such as scientology and mormonism because of this freemasonic belief system. This concept of “you can believe what you want” in America that America has implemented for all citizens does not function in any way. I can write a religion that requires people to submit to a system where you have to conduct yourself and think a certain way. If the cult members do not do such, the movement fails and the whole world ends. In Western Europe, North America, and South America, you can tell officials and people on the street that you are in a cult, and they will not do anything about it. Also, people should not have the right to practice a religion wrong i.e. a woman wearing a burqa nor have the right to deny absolutes such as 2+2=4 or God's existence etc.

This is not true; the Arabs (Palestinians) only want the 1967 borders back; they don't seek to destroy the zionist state. It is also false that if the Arabs put down their weapons that peace would be achieved. Ben is lying here, he is allowed to because of his talmudic beliefs or Ben is intentionally misleading people to think Arabs are his Palestinian neighbors when he means from the Nile to the Euphrates which all happen to be Arabs living in them. Ben does this because he thinks his false god is only merciful and just to Jews, we don't matter in the zionists eyes. It is always the opposing side’s fault for war; you will never see the zionists take credit for the five wars they started. Citizens always want peace or do not want to pay for the cost of war, there always has to be a reason, this is why getting from the Nile to the Euphrates is difficult for the zionists since it covers many different countries. Ever since WWI all wars now are to achieve this "peace". No country of people want war, the zionists are the same. Also, most leaders of countries use Twitter and quotes to get your vote, think as to why they talk about war and Hamas a group the zionists created. Finally, Ben says that the zionist state is the "land of the Jews", the problem here is we don't know how the Pharisees and Sadducees thought, it might be the land of the Jews, but does that mean Palestinians should be evicted? Who owns Second Jerusalem? I'd say the Palestinians. As I have stated in a previous post, the world will end, so it matters not what the "land of the Jews" is, they don't value the land. What also gets to me is that Syria has a far better understanding of Allah's Laws than the zionist state where everything isn't a democracy. I would also like to add that zionists are polytheists. This is not true; the Arabs (Palestinians) only want the 1967 borders back; they don't seek to destroy the zionist state. Why did Prophet Muhammad have time slots with his 11 wives? People would line up to see him. It seems a bit convenient to me that Prophet Muhammad was religious and that he would listen to everything a follower would tell him. Allah had turned a somewhat successful merchant that hardly anyone knew into a religious leader, everyone but his companions feared to be in his presence because they knew he could never fail. One thing that Christians believe is that Paul would know more about religion than Prophet Muhammad, whether Prophet or not this is false, Prophet Muhammad had his connections with religious people. Prophet Muhammad lived in Arabia his entire life, Prophet Muhammad would know the Israelite stories far better than Paul who lived in Greece most of his life and moved to Palestine later on in life. It is fair to say the writers who collected the false gospel didn't know Jesus well since Paul did not add much if anything to the stories in the false gospel. That's why there is no such thing as Christianity vs Islam, the question is if Jesus was a Christian or a Muslim, the false gospel doesn't give us Muslims enough insight to believe Jesus was a Christian, a few single verses indicating Christian doesn't help the case. There are people also say that there is enough proof for all world religions to be correct, and none favor the other, hold on a second, how can someone disprove that world wars 1 and 2 were to get us humans to an end goal?

Prophet Muhammad's first wife Khadijah's cousin Waraka ibn Nawfal had the true Gospel which spoke of the Messiah Isa son of Maryam who lived in Arabia. The true Gospel confirmed Prophet Muhammad as a Prophet. The true Gospel was lost around Prophet Muhammad's time. The false gospel we have today is a book describing a man called Jeshu who was born out of wedlock and was from the Davidic line who wanted to be King of the second Israel in Palestine as documented in the Jerusalem Talmud where his name is Yeshu. If the Jerusalem Talmud was describing Prophet Isa, the Jerusalem Talmud would use the name Yeshua. Jeshu went with his false apostles to explain to others his false Arabian fertility good known as “jesus.” When Jeshu’s preaching failed, his false apostles made a false gospel about Jeshu and fused it with the true Gospel from Arabia. This false gospel has some of what Prophet Isa said in it. The Christians that say Jesus had fulfilled all these different Messianic prophecies are wrong, scripture was handed down. The Bible we have today was compiled by people we don’t know. Someone could have easily made up the prophecies happening by coping the Torah and claiming the Messiah had done the prophecies in them. Also, we don’t have evidence for the miracles in the false gospel taking place because other religious people were credited with performing miracles during that time in Palestine where the writers of the false gospel could claim Jeshu had performed the miracles found in the false gospel. I credit historian Kamal Salibi, author Reza Aslan, author Ashraf Ezzat, and author Richard Cassaro as my sources for this.

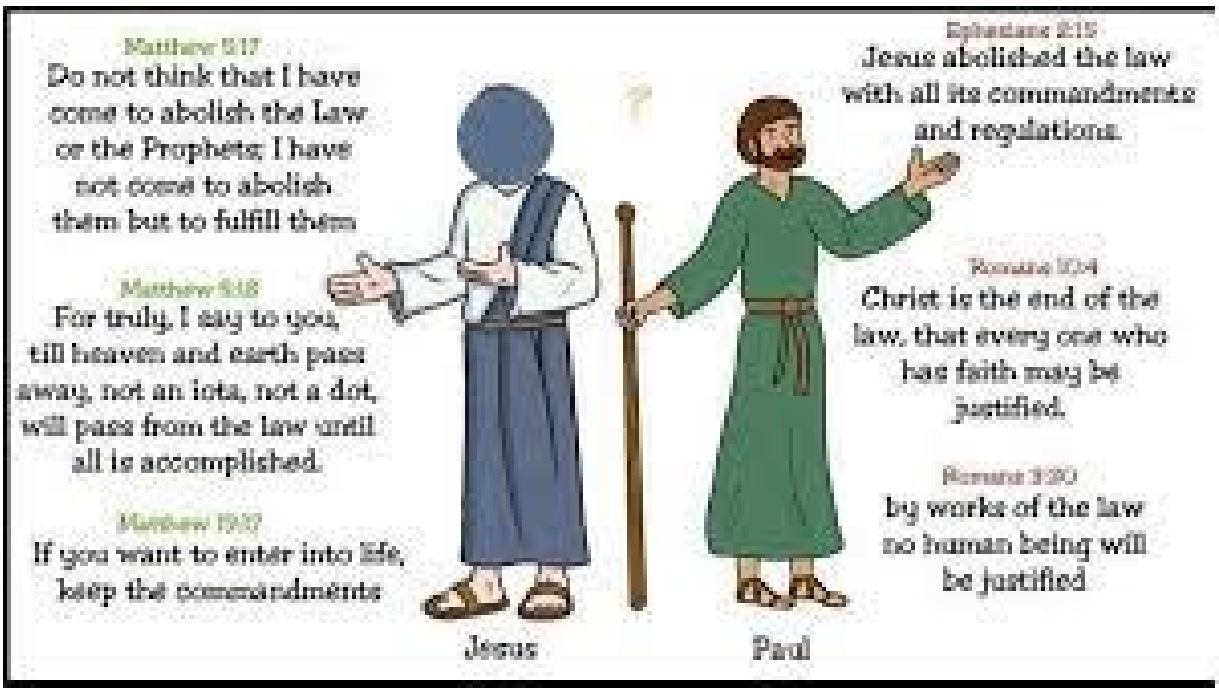
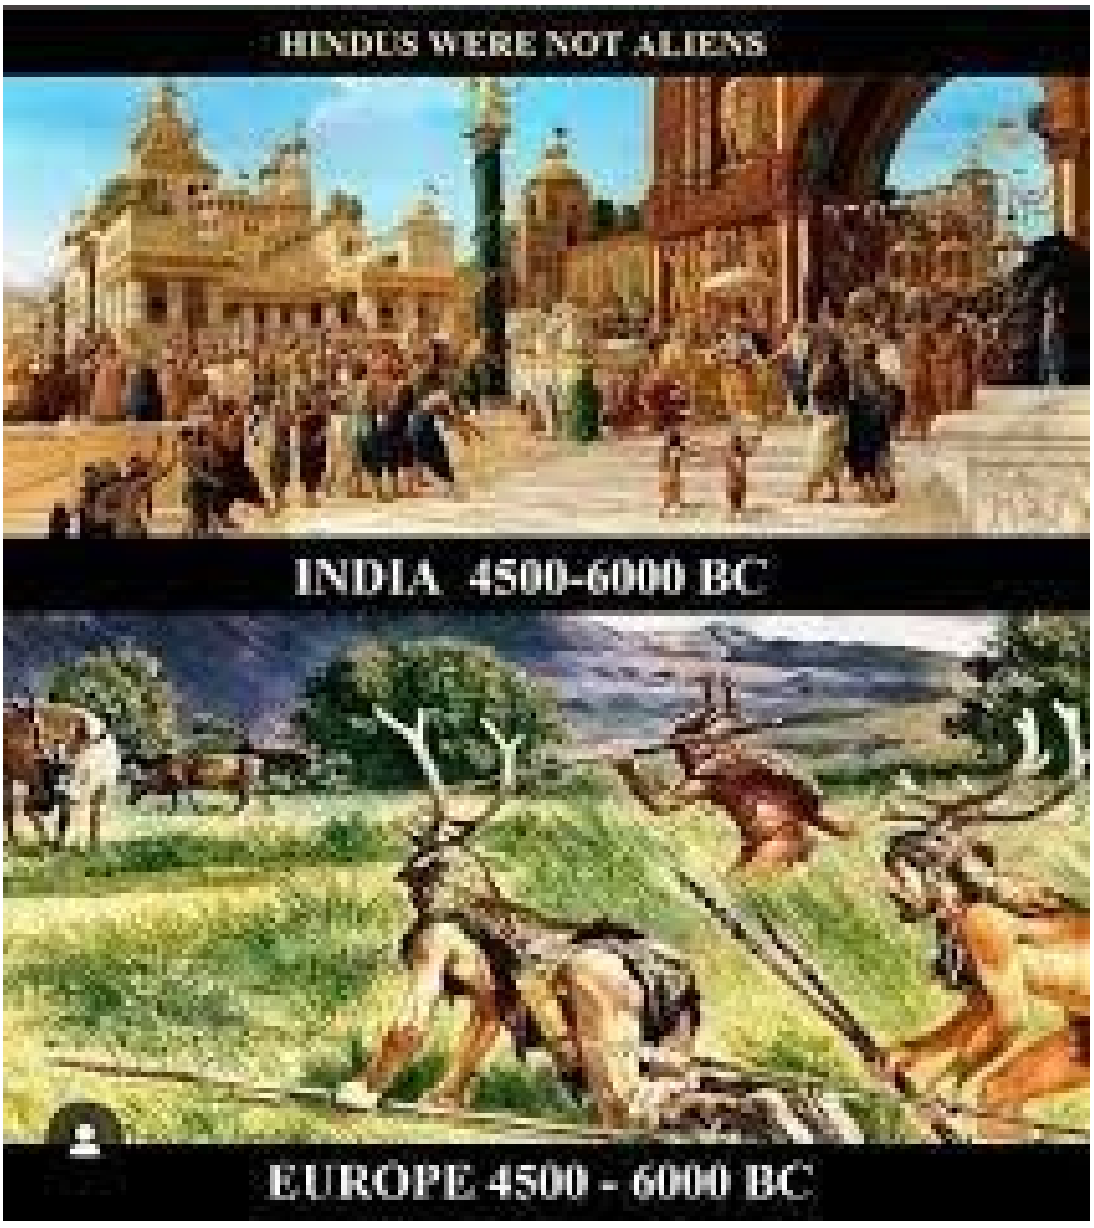
We better be sure of Allah's existence since the future of Yemen is on the line. If the Yemeni people do not resist the attacks, Yemen becomes a failed state meanwhile Saudi Arabia would further their wahhabism worldwide. More wahhabism more wars, terrorism etc. Imagine the global media coverage the Yemeni people would get if the Yemeni people were American. The people of Yemen are the real heroes, but the media refuses to explain the Islamic side of the story.

The Sumerian 7 Planets rotating the Sun Tablet is reason enough to believe there was a flood that devastated a section of Arabia. No one can disprove my religious beliefs until someone can provide an explanation for how the Sumerians discovered this.

This means their ziggurats probably had reason where they got the inspiration for the tablet, it all becomes possible they got in touch with something/ anything that scientists cannot explain. The Bible and Quran speak of Nephilim or Jinn whether the names are describing the same beings which the Sumerians documented they spoke to. The Sumerians used the term Anunnaki which means like Anu the highest god of all the gods which I think Anunnaki means the same thing as Nephilim or Jinn. Proverbs talks about how Nephilim talked to humans and taught them knowledge from the Heavens, that is the source of what Proverbs came from. If the ziggurats were for culture, why is it that the ziggurats are far bigger than the Sumerian king’s palace? Why is it that only the scribes and kings were allowed to go to the top of the ziggurats? Clearly the Sumerians had structure of some sort.



Christianity confuses matters such as if the Law of Moses is still applicable. There are over 7 different meanings for the “kingdom of god” found from Christian theologians. The Book of Revelation no one can understand. The Trinity is still being debated on how to understand it and there were many heresies of it historically. I want to clarify I think Christianity is Trinitarian but whose denomination of Trinitarian is correct I have no clue. There are no prayer times. In faith, I need straight answers that all can agree on for matters where it is simple enough for anyone of any IQ to understand, in Christianity it has a difference of view on matters. Finally, the writers behind Christianity couldn’t make up their mind on how to get the most followers whether Jeshu abolished the Law of Moses or fulfilled it, so they wrote in Jeshu did both in Paul’s writings.



If we humans started as cavemen, how were the cavemen able to read and write one day? Why did the cavemen want to, what was the driving force? So, the cavemen changed their mind one day and decided to have conscious? This sounds like a miracle to me since the American historians claim it happened one night but the people who write history dispute the notion of their being miracles. Allah had to make our speech coherent, have a flow between words, and interesting for us humans to listen to; us humans create language of any kind. We human beings didn’t start as cavemen and before that as apes like the U.S. historical textbooks will tell you in schools. They were well educated, and they built societies. Yes, they did make mistakes such as drinking from rivers that were full of mud. They built up the earth overtime; they didn’t just wake up one day and decide to teach themselves how to read and write. They had well thought out caste systems, laws, a currency, they wrote books which are lost unfortunately, theater, records of king’s lineages etc. Since the beginning of time people have wanted to better themselves. If we evolved from apes what caused this idea to come about of self-betterment? It is more believable that Prophet Adam taught of righteousness to his descendants instead of the idea having come up one day from cavemen who can’t read or write. Without knowledge, mankind doesn’t know how to read emotions meaning when a caveman gets sad, the caveman resorts to violence. This is why mankind had to be taught by Allah. The world would fail with caveman because at some point they would resort to violence against each other and end each other. The U.S. historical textbooks will tell you that the people in the photo of Europe is how humanity started with no evidence at all. Don’t you find it odd that they leave the people of India out of the schools so you wouldn’t know they were educated but they teach evolution and cavemen, do they not want you to know history?

ADL DEFENDS UKRAINE'S NEO-NAZIS: THEY "DON'T ATTACK JEWS OR JEWISH INSTITUTIONS"

Chris Menahan

InformationLiberation

Mar. 25, 2022

The Anti-Defamation League, the leading pro-Israel lobbying group in America, published a Q&A defending Ukraine's neo-Nazi groups on the grounds that they "don't attack Jews or Jewish institutions."

In an article titled, "Why is Putin Calling the Ukrainian Government a Bunch of Nazis?" the ADL interviewed David Fishman, professor of Jewish History at The Jewish Theological Seminary, to explain why Ukraine's neo-Nazis aren't so bad.

neo nazi’s are fighting for the Ukraine government, nobody wants these kinds of groups to grow further with the next generation. I would hope Vladmir Putin attacks neo nazi groups anywhere. Ukraine is run by Volodymyr Zelenskyy a Jew, can these people be trusted that they will keep you safe? What if a neo nazi was your neighbor? All I am asking is can a neo nazi be trusted no matter who supports them? Should they ever be given legitimacy? If this isn’t serious to people, I don’t know what is.

Quran 2:2 A book in which there is no doubt. Arabic can easily be translated to other languages and has been handed down generation and generation. The Quran had to be delivered because we don’t know Hebrew and Hebrew is a lost language. Rabbinical Hebrew is lost, you have a spoken Hebrew Bible today, Biblical Hebrew and Rabbinical Hebrew (the true Hebrew) are not the same. The Old Testament we have today is in Biblical Hebrew. Rabbinical Hebrew was never revived. We don’t know what percent of Hebrew we understand, but it is not 100%. We don’t know what is and is not translated properly. No matter what, we will not be able to fully understand Hebrew, it cannot ever be found fully. The Christians who use the Old Testament we have today to try to confirm their false gospel don’t know if for instance in Isaiah 9:6 “mighty god, everlasting father, prince of peace” is talking about something completely different and the words are off by way of a mistranslation. To use Hebrew that none can fully understand as proof for your false gospel it doesn’t work. You can use it, but to claim that’s exactly what it is getting at we don’t know. I do the same with the Torah to say that it most likely confirms Prophet Muhammad as a Prophet, but we will never know since we don’t know the Hebrew. Also, most Christians believe the Old Testament is corrupted in some way that’s why they have their false gospel. You can be a Muslim and claim only the false gospel has a few references of Prophet Muhammad being a Prophet and Jesus not dying on the cross and that you cannot use any of the Old Testament we have today to confirm that Prophet Muhammad is a Prophet. I don't do this; I use the Old Testament we have today to confirm Prophet Muhammad is a Prophet. Yes, I am saying you are posting verses you do not know; you know the false gospel since it in Greek which can be translated to any language. You don't know Hebrew nobody does, but you are using it to try to confirm your false gospel. Because Hebrew is lost, we will never know which verses mean what whether the Old Testament has errors in it or not. Remember too that it also has to be translated to English and there are no speakers of Hebrew in today's world, the documents on how to translate and understand it are lost today if Hebrew was translated to other languages. Not only has the original Hebrew been lost, but we don't know the interpretation of the Biblical Hebrew that has been translated to other languages. Because we do not know how to understand Hebrew, no Christian can claim the Bible is infallible. They can claim their false gospel is infallible but because their false gospel is attached to the Old Testament we have today, no Christian only goes by their false gospel as proof that their holy book is infallible. What this means is they cannot use the Old Testament we have today as proof that their false gospel is divinely inspired. The Christians only chance at their religion being right is the false gospel being infallible since the Quran is infallible and the Quran contradicts their false gospel. Polytheism cannot be possible since the Quran states there is no God but Allah in Quran 2:163 and says that Allah is not Jesus in Quran 5:73, if polytheism were correct that would mean the Quran would have an error that it is not infallible and that there is more than one god. Because the Quran contradicts the false gospel and the Quran is infallible, that is proof to me that one is all correct and one is all wrong since one can be used to disprove the other since that goes against reason that holy books that contradict each other are both infallible. The false gospel has to be infallible since there are verses such as John 3:16 that says for god so loved the world he sent his only son that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

I am not a Prophet so I cannot confirm this, I am 100% sure Allah does not want to end the earth. Since many people will be weeping during End Times where they don't want the earth in the catastrophic state it will be in, I would think that God didn't want the world to end. Remember, if you corrupt the earth in any way intentionally, you go to Hell it is confirmed in the Quran. To me, the zionists are all wrong in what they do. If Allah wanted a "third" temple in Palestine, it would be done through peaceful means without warfare, not through corrupting the earth, this is not for debate. I acknowledge Allah may want a "third" temple in Palestine. I am sure that Allah does not want the people of Palestine, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Egypt, and Arabia to surrender which would mean leave the land and hand it over to the zionists. Surrendering runs a good chance as a Muslim being sent to Hell. We Muslims are the Ummah. The zionists that want to conquer the Middle East and world are not part of the Ummah. Let's say the zionists were correct in what they do, why would they lie and hide it from the public? Why would Allah confirm in the Quran a Final Day? To go further, why are the Palestinians not surrendering and leaving the land? Why do the zionists mock out beliefs and countries? What about how the zionist leaders don't believe in Allah and believe in a false god? The "third" temple the zionist want is to enslave humanity. The "this" temple I am talking about would be to have humanity get along and unite which would be the opposite of what they want. The land of Palestine is holy to us with Second Jerusalem. If not, Arabia is holy and they own our Holy Land of Mecca and Medina, meanwhile they are trying to destroy First Jerusalem in Yemen. They’ won’t give up our land to us!

The zionists do not know how to read scripture. The zionists want a perfect earth. Prophet Muhammad wanted a perfect earth; thanks to archelogy we know he is an Israelite. How is Prophet Muhammad not your Final Prophet unless if they are polytheists which their leaders clearly are. That alone is proof. Yet people argue all day that Prophet Muhammad isn’t in the Torah we have today. All the zionists care about is the “third” temple. The zionists believe that their false god will be a part of their “third” temple. I believe scripture indicates that Prophet Muhammad never wanted a “third” temple. Because the zionists corrupt the earth with at minimum a portion of their followers, we know Islam is correct because it says do not corrupt the earth in the Quran.

Islam is the religion of the Prophets not the “religion of Prophet Muhammad.” Most of the records of what the Prophets did for our Lord are lost. With Prophet Muhammad, there is a good amount of information on him. Prophet Muhammad is one of five major Prophets who did the most service for the Lord. Prophet Muhammad did an equal amount of service as the four other major Prophets did for our Lord. We Muslims follow Allah’s teachings that was delivered to us through Prophet Muhammad, we do not submit to the Prophet Muhammad. We are not allowed to excessively praise Prophet Muhammad as the Christians do with Jesus, Prophet Muhammad is the slave of Allah and His Apostle.

The first photo is a zionist checkpoint in Jericho in the West Bank a city owned by the Palestinians. The second is another photo of a zionist checkpoint. There are 140 zionist checkpoints in the West Bank. In Gaza, the Palestinians are shot if they are considered too far away from the ocean near the zionists settlements. What would take 10 minutes becomes 30 minutes to get to a location in the West Bank from the zionist checkpoints set up in the West Bank. There are no Palestinian checkpoints in the zionist state.

This violates the U.N.’s Universal Declaration of Human Rights. I can only imagine the protests that would come if this was done to a group of people in America.
